Product Description

Product Description:

Our Cold Room Evaporator is specifically crafted to cater to walk-in freezers, cold storage rooms, and refrigeration systems. With high-efficiency aluminum fins and robust copper tubing, it guarantees swift and even cooling across the area. Equipped with low-noise axial fans, outstanding heat transfer capacity, and corrosion-resistant materials, this unit is built for enduring performance.

Available in a range of models tailored to various temperature requirements, from high-temperature cold rooms to ultra-low freezers, this evaporator offers versatility. Its easy installation and maintenance make it a reliable choice for food storage, pharmaceutical purposes, and industrial refrigeration.

Applications:

Food Storage & Processing – Ideal for preserving meat, seafood, fruits, vegetables, and dairy products in walk-in cold rooms and freezers.

Pharmaceutical Industry – Maintains precise temperature control for medicine storage, vaccine preservation, and bio-materials.

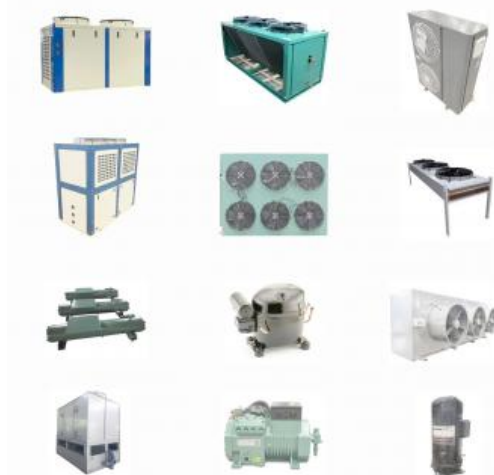

Supermarkets & Convenience Stores – Used in backroom storage areas to keep products fresh before shelving.

Cold Chain Logistics – Integrated into refrigerated trucks and distribution warehouses for continuous cooling.

Industrial Refrigeration – Applied in large-scale cold storage warehouses, food factories, and processing facilities.

Bakeries & Catering – Keeps perishable ingredients and prepared foods at safe, consistent temperatures.

Aquatic Product Cold Rooms – Ensures freshness for fish, shellfish, and other seafood under low-temperature storage.
